

Adiouza: “Mala Nop”

In this song Adiouza talks about crazy love

Why I love you, why I admire you
You are my sugar and I'm not afraid to catch diabetes
You make me love and you make me dream
I was told to choose
I gave you my steering wheel telling you to drive
The path belongs to you
I am the traffic policeman I don't ask you for your license

You conquered my heart without any resistance
And it will be yours for all my existence
Whether together or remotely I will love you patiently, without respite

It was you who made me who I am
I'm crazy in love with you
You're in my heart
That's why I do not want to be alone

Assane Ndiaye: “Xalebi”

In this song Assane Ndiaye speaks of a woman he loves

God forgive us
This girl has been around for a long time
I pray the Almighty that he united us
Whenever I came I saw your smile
Now I come you hide
It is at this moment known that I knew that it was the witch fetishers (marabouts) who separated us
If it's not the fetishers, it's my fault

Leave me with her
She is the one I love
I do not know who separated us
But let her know that I love her
Two people who love each other
If you can contribute by good action
Stay quiet don't separate them

Maria Amar and Cheikh those that I like
They love each other very much and they know each other ...

Wally Seck, featuring Akhlou Brick Paradise “Nila”

In this song Akhlou Brick and Wally talk about the beauty of Senegalese women

Force doesn't play
I'm not you; you're not me
I usually dress well
Look at me from head to foot
I'm not trying to get dressed
I know how to dress
I am very clean from head to toe
It's like this
It's like this
I told you to get dressed in African dress
Dress up as a great African lady
Dress up as if you were going to "nuit du bazin"
Don't forget to tattoo yourself and wear make up
An African lady must wear a Moussore scarf
An African lady doesn't wear leggings
It's like this
It's like this

You are on the toll road
I don't know if it's on or not
You never deceive in makeup
You put your graft in the air
Walking with class
With your whip you whip
Nobody dares to attack you
Sincerely you are the best
You're well dressed
You have class
You wore your big African boubou plus scarf
Your approach is so beautiful
Great lady comes to me
Great lady comes to me

When you get dressed you become more beautiful and sexier
You are my great African lady, my paradise
I am a fan of yours
You and I are more beautiful than Guissé Mabo
I chose you and you belong to me
But for your clothing I will give you a good score
Do it like you come from Mali
I call you Aminata Bakayoko
It's like this
It's like this

It's like this
It's like this...

Youssou Ndour "Réseaux sociaux "

In this song Youssou N'dour sensitizes Senegalese on social networks

The world has changed with the advent of social networks
Not so long ago men were calm and serene
But the internet has opened doors social networks have invaded the atmosphere
All our ancestors built
This heritage that everyone envies
Now it's as if it doesn't exist
We must keep our ancestral values
If we don't change the way social networks are used
We risk degenerating

The misuse of social networks is destroying our values
Let's get back to family rules
The little ones must give respect to the elders
Children must respect their parents
Don't play with these values
Your maternal uncle considers him as your mother
Your paternal aunt considers her as your father
Don't play with these values
Don't play with these values

Before we settled in discretion
Now on social networks men are no longer ashamed
To insult the mother or the father of someone in public
These beautiful values that strengthen our religions
But with the advent of the internet
We are losing our values
Our great men must make decisions to educate people
The unison and respect we have in our country
It's not easy to find it in other countries

On the internet you can find a lot of positive or negative things
Let's choose the positive side
Our values don't allow us to lay out our private parts
On social networks
If you looked for our values in this world
You'll go round in circles
If you looked for our values in this world

You'll go round in circles ...

Titi "Tamit"

In this song Titi talks about crazy love

The car is already gone
The car went away leaving me
How am I going to meet you
Honey, tell me where you are
How will I do
by which way I must pass to join you
I cried for love

The taxi is already gone
The taxi went away leaving me
How am I going to meet you
Honey, tell me where you are
How will I do
by which way I must pass to join you
I feel alone by love
Trust me
Trust me
If you trust me we will be happy
Our love is reciprocal
Trust me
I love you madly
I want to take care of you
Until your friends are amazed
When I call you stop doing the wrong thing
Love is inexplicable
Trust me
Trust me
If you trust me we will be happy
All is love

I love you, I will love you
I give you my heart to infinity
Our love can be realized as the evening of Youssou N'dour at Bercy
Our love can be realized as the derby Real vs Barça
Women don't like to be cheated
Baby I love you to madness
My love for you is an ocean
A cup can not finish me
In love matters I am a wholesaler
I don't sell by details

It's me who will provide you all that you need

Pape Diouf "Yallah Jexul

In this song Pape Diouf talks about life and gives advice to Senegalese youth

Children I think you will answer me
I haven't taken my dinner yet and today is Friday
Last day of judgment we will ask for help
With a clean heart

The life right now
The life right now
I'm repulsed
I'm repulsed
You see this in the fiery heat with his child
Wanting to look for the daily expense
Look for a shelter and breastfeed your child
If you believe in God these benefits never dry up
The Life right now
The Life right now
I'm repulsed
I'm repulsed
In this world if you have no money people don't consider you
But if you are rich everyone wants to be your parent

The life right now
The life right now
I'm repulsed
I'm repulsed
I am sincerely
Have mercy
Have mercy
Children I think you will answer me
I haven't taken my dinner yet and today is Friday
On the last day of judgment we will ask for help
Those who work and who have the means
Help the poor, they need it
Right now the country is going badly
We need to work to develop it
Everyone must give the maximum in his field
Together let us join forces
In this world if you have no money people do not consider you
But if you are rich everyone wants to be your parent

Have mercy

Have mercy

Right now the country is going badly

We need to work to develop it

Take example of a man like Sheikh Tidiane Bâ

The husband of Lissa Ndoeye father of Mari Diané and Ami Colé

Trust in our youth to develop our country

Trust in our youth to develop our country
